Kevin's Unique Ability

I asked reps, business and family who have known me for years to evaluate my unique ability. These are quotes from their answers:

DIFFERENT IDEAS (HUMOROUS RESPONSES)

"Kevin responds positively to praise accompanied by small snacks."

"Kevin's enthusiasm for change is marred only by his penchant for violence."

"I would trust Kevin to feed and care for house pets. Not the kind of pets that really need a lot of care like a dog or cat, mind you, more like fish or a turtle. He could definitely handle a turtle."
